

This view is facing Southeast. The existing business department and gym are on the right side of the image. On the left side of the image the North end of the current library building can be seen.